

Shooter Profile- Blake Lee

Name: Blake William Lee

Age: 17

This month's shooter to be profiled is Blake Lee.

Blake is one of our very promising shooters who is up and coming on the shooting circuit.

Blake is a Pistol Shooter and has been shooting for four years now, his favourite discipline to shoot is Air Pistol, this is supported by the fact that Blake achieved second place in the YOG 10m Air Pistol at the AISL International Open which took place in Sydney earlier this month, please see the article on the AISL International Open for pictures and additional information.

Blake has shot a personal best of 558 which is not too far off of the senior shooting level; along with this PB score Blake has additional shooting achievements which include, being awarded state champion for Junior Air Pistol, Blake was also selected in the team for the Singapore Open in July of this year.

Other events that Blake has attended this year include: Australia Cup 1, the Nationals, both of the Youth Olympic Games MQS shoots, and Cessnock Village, so it has been a busy shooting year for Blake.

In between shooting events, training and school Blake also makes time for his hobbies which include playing sports, Blake loves sports, he plays football and cricket with his mates. He also plays volleyball on a Thursday night and enjoys watching most sports.

Blake's favourite sporting icon is Lance Armstrong , "I think Lance Armstrong is pretty admirable because he managed to beat cancer and still comeback to win the world's toughest race 7 times"

Blake's future shooting aspirations include qualifying for the Youth Olympic Games next year, he would also like to win a national title in the future, he would like to continue shooting for as long as he can. As for a job aspiration, Blake is thinking about becoming a fireman.

If there was one place in the world Blake would like to visit, it would be England to see Manchester United play at Old Trafford.

Blake is an aspiring young shooter who will surely continue to put his best foot forward in his shooting career, best of luck and good shooting to you Blake.
