

Australian Sports Commission Media Awards 2009

The Australian Sports Commission Media Awards — now in its eighth year — celebrates analytical and insightful presentation of sport and sporting issues by journalists, broadcasters and photographers.

The Awards are unique in the recognition of journalistic excellence in Australia, having multiple sport related categories and being the only dedicated sports media awards in Australia that allow different media to compete on their relative merits.

In 2009, the Awards categories are:

1. Lifetime Achievement Award for Contribution to Sports Journalism
2. Best Reporting of an Issue in Australian Sport
3. Best Contribution to the Coverage of Sport - by an organisation
4. Best Contribution to the Coverage of Sport - by an individual
5. Best Profiling of an Athlete, Team or Coach - broadcast media
6. Best Profiling of an Athlete, Team or Coach - print media
7. Best Sports Journalism from Rural, Regional or Suburban Media
8. Best Journalism on Community Sport
9. Best Sports Photography
10. Best Sports Journalism by a Student

Nominations for this year's awards are now open. For more information and a copy of the nomination booklet please visit the ASC Media Awards website:
